Good evening Laura -

I'm just writing to show my support in the proposal to name the new rink in CE after Reese Meyer. Reese was one of my son's best friends. He was always a kind friend who we have no doubt, had he been given the chance, would have grown up to be an amazing man. His character in good health and during cancer exemplified what anyone would aspire to - courageous, generous and thoughtful. We think of Reese every single day and seeing the rink named in his honour, would make so many of us happy, especially his young friends throughout this community.

Thank you,
Salween
